

United Way's Imagination Library

United Way of Central Minnesota is committed to helping children and youth achieve their potential. Reading with your child, starting at birth, will help them gain a better understanding of the world and early reading skills. United Way believes in giving young children and their families a great start to prepare for success in school and life.

Program Details:

Imagination Library will mail a new, age appropriate book to each child at their home each month until their 5th birthday. The program is offered to families at no cost!

"Sometimes we lose sight of what children need. [Imagination Library books] remind people that what kids want is to have quality time with their parents . . ."

~AnnElise Edeburn, mother of Theo
